efforts and dedication. Taking this great legacy forward Arunamai College of Pharmacy was established in 2005, to provide high-quality Pharmacy education to rural students.

Our mission is to offer students education based on advanced technology in various fields and to use knowledge as a tool of social transformation. Additionally, we aim to equip them to participate in the nation-building activity with a view to promoting their overall progress. Right from its inception, our college has been on a mission to provide state-of-the-art educational facilities to our rural students so that they can confidently compete with the outer world.
